

The Historical Context
and Pittsburgh
Connections to The Great Gatsby

November 12
6pm
Carnegie Library of Homestead

Dr. Jacqueline Cavalier

Dr. Jacqueline Cavalier is a Professor of History at CCAC. In addition to her role as a professor, she serves as grievance vice president for the AFT Local 2067. She was recently recognized as a recipient of the Dale P. Parnell Distinguished Faculty Award by the American Association of Community Colleges.

---

Carmen Livingston

Carmen Livingston has been an English professor at CCAC for 15 years. For the past two years, she has coordinated the One Book Community Read Program, a long-term initiative of CCAC promoting the reading of great literature.

---

Dr. Kirsten Paine

Dr. Kirsten Paine is the Museum Education Historic Interpretation Manager at Rivers of Steel. In addition to public history work related to 19th-century industrial labor, she specializes in 19th-century American women writers. She earned her PhD in English from the University of Pittsburgh .